INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.56

The submission of any document herewith, which is not a statutory bar, is not intended as an admission that such document constitutes prior art against the claims of the present application or that such document is considered material to patentability as defined in 37 C.F.R. § 1.56(b). Applicant does not waive any rights to take any action which would be appropriate to antedate or otherwise remove as a competent reference any document which is determined to be a prima facie art reference against the claims of the present application.

TIMING OF THE DISCLOSURE

The listed documents are being submitted in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.97(b), before the mailing date of the first Office Action on the merits.

RELEVANCE OF EACH DOCUMENT

The relevance of the foreign-language documents is described in the present specification. English translations of the foreign-language documents are not readily available. However, the absence of such translation does not relieve the PTO from its duty to consider the submitted foreign language documents (37 C.F.R. § 1.98 and M.P.E.P. § 609).

Mayr et al. ("Charakterisierung eines Stutenabortvirus aus Polen und Vergleich mit bekannten Rhinopneumonitisvirus-Staemmen aus Pferdes" (1965)) describe an agent isolated in Poland from an aborted horse fetus. The agent was characterized as an equine rhinopneumonitis virus (RAC strain). The virus was characterized with a neutralization test as a subtype 2 strain.

Mayr et al. (Berliner und Munchener Tierarzliche Wochenschrift"; vol. 19, pp. 372-378 (1968)) describe the differentiation, clinical signs, epidemics, diagnosis and controls of the most important viral diseases in horses. The viruses were classified by their morphological, chemical-physical and biological properties.

Applicant respectfully requests that the listed documents be considered by the Examiner and be made of record in the present application and that an initialed copy of Form PTO-1449 be returned in accordance with M.P.E.P. § 609.
